(Admission for the Academic Session 2024-2025)

- 1. General Guidelines for Admission
- 2. Reservation Criteria(as per DCE Guideline)
- 3. Concession, Relaxation & Weightages
- 4. Criteria of Merit
- 5. Guidelines for Foreign and NRI Students

1. General Guidelines for Admission

Admission of a student to a course shall be subject to the condition prescribed by the University ordinances / rules as applicable to the course in which admission is sought.

Admission to various certificate / diploma / undergraduate / postgraduate programmes shall be offered to those students who have passed the qualifying examinations from the Central or State Boards / UGC recognized Universities.

Admission in M. Phil. and Ph. D. programmes shall be made through entrance test only as per the UGC guidelines. Applicants desiring admission to these courses should do the needful as per notification of the entrance examination which shall be notified separately.

A candidate is required to apply separately for each course / programme in time in the prescribed online admission form. If a candidate is not admitted in a course applied for, his/her admission form would not be transferred in any other department / course / programme, even if a vacancy exists in that department / course / programme.

After last date of admission as given in the University Notification, no application will be entertained.

Following documents / information shall be required to fill online admission form:

- Scanned Copy of Latest Colored Photograph (Size: between 50KB to 100 KB).

Admission of in-service Candidates: In-service candidates may be allowed admission to the various courses on production of a 'No Objection-Cum-Character Certificate' from their employers, without which their applications shall not be considered. This certificate must be produced within the stipulated time period. 'In-service candidates' refers to employees of Central or State Government, Statutory bodies, Govt. controlled undertakings, Banks and employees of Govt. recognized and aided colleges, institutions and registered firms.

Admission of candidates from other Universities: A student migrating from any other University shall not be admitted to any stage of the course other than the first year except as otherwise provided for in the University Ordinances.

Non-eligibility due to FIR / Criminal Offence / Misbehavior: The following categories of students shall not be eligible for admission:

- (a) Any candidate against whom an F.I.R. has been lodged by the University or any Affiliated College or by any other competent Authority of the University / College shall not be eligible for admission as a regular candidate in any Departments of the University.
- (b) Any person who has been convicted of criminal offence involving moral turpitude shall not be eligible for admission as a regular student in any Department of the University.
- (c) Any candidate who has been found guilty in any misbehavior with any teacher or with any authority / official of the University shall be debarred from seeking admission in any Department of the University.

The University has right to refuse the admission to a candidate against whom FIR has been lodged anywhere or criminal case has been registered in the Court and/or punished by the University for Misconduct.

Gap between the Study:

- (a) For Admission in UG Programmes
 - Candidate who have more than two years gap after qualifying examination will not be eligible to take admission in any undergraduate programme.
 - This rule is not applicable on the female candidates.
- (b) For Admission in PG Programmes
 - Candidate who have more than two years gap in PG previous year to final year examination will not be eligible to take admission in any PG final year.
 - This rule is not applicable on the female candidates.

A candidate shall not be allowed to take admission again in the same class in which who has been declared as passed.

A candidate shall be allowed to take admission in postgraduate programmes twice (two different postgraduate courses or one postgraduate and one law undergraduate programme) only.

A candidate who declared fail in previous year or semester cannot take re-admission in the same subject as regular student but he / she can take admission in another course on the basis of his / her undergraduate marks one time only.

If original mark sheet(s) is not received by the candidate due to any reason from any Board / College / University, the candidate may fill online admission form by uploading self-certified internet mark sheet(s). Original mark sheet(s) will be produced by the candidate at the time of document verification. If any change of marks is observed between online mark sheet(s) and original mark sheet(s), the University may take action against the candidate(s) and his/her/their admission may be cancelled.

Acceptance of admission form does not guarantee of admission. Admissions shall be made on the basis of merit subject to the availability of the number of seats for each course and subject to fulfillment of the conditions laid down by the University for the purpose from time to time

Candidate whose name appears in the merit list shall download and submit the hard copy of the filled "Online Admission Form" along with all submitted documents in the concern department. Fee can be deposited only after verification of the submitted documents with original documents and getting the confirmation letter of provisional admission from the head of the department / course coordinator.

Candidates called for admission shall be required to appear at their own expenses before the admission committee of the Department concerned on the dates notified by the University / Department for documents verification

If seats remain vacant in the UG classes after given the admission to the eligible candidates with notified minimum marks, a 3% relaxation may given in the qualifying marks and the seats may be filled on the merit basis. Thus, the students having 3% less marks than the minimum eligibility may also fill the online admission form.

However, if seats remain vacant in PG programmes, 5% relaxation to female candidates of Rajasthan and outside candidates (male and female both) may given in the minimum qualifying. Online Admission Form may be filled by the candidates having 5% less than marks of qualifying examination. Thus, outside candidates having upto 55% marks may fill the online application form.

Related with minimum eligibility criteria for female candidates, the rules of the State Govt. will be adopted as and when even circulated during the admission process.

Reserve category students with minimum marks are eligible to fill the online form.

At the time of admission, the applicant must furnish original documents for verification. If original mark sheet(s) / certificate(s) / required document(s) are not produced by the admitted candidate(s) at the time of document verification, an affidavit on plain paper may be taken by the respective department / B.Sc. Coordinator from such candidate(s) regarding submission of original mark sheet(s) / certificate(s) / required document(s) along with original T.C and C.C, migration certificate (if applicable), etc. will be submitted within 15 days failing which his / her admission shall be cancelled.

The applicant shall give an undertaking that if any of the certificates submitted by him/her is found fake/illegitimate, the University has right to cancel his/her admission without giving any prior notice or information.

If a candidate who had applied for admission to more than one course and is admitted in one course and subsequently his/her name appears in the merit list of another course, then he/she would have option to choose either course subject to the adjustment of fee within the period of 15 days from the date of admission i.e date of submission of fee in the earlier course. It shall be subject to availability of seats in the concerned course.

Any candidate desires for change of subject / programme after seeking admission in a particular subject / programme shall have to apply for change in writing along with receipt of bank challan of Rs. 100/- fee within 15 days of deposit of admission fee. Admission in the other subject / course shall be depending on the last cut off of the concerned subject / course.

It means percentage of the candidate should be higher than the last cutoff of the concerned course / subject in which he/she is seeking admission. It is mandatory that online admission form has already been filled by such candidate(s) for that subject / programmes in which he/she desires change / transfer in within the date notified by the University.

If any candidates after taking admission requests for taking his/her T.C back for getting admission in any other institute before submitting admission fee, his/her admission may be cancelled and vacant seats may be filled by another candidates on merit basis. If such student(s) further request(s) for re-consideration of admission in the same class and session, his/her candidature will be not considered. Such types of candidate(s) can apply afresh if the seats remain vacant in his/her category and university invites fresh applications for the admission

Number of students shall be restricted to the sanctioned strength prescribed for each subject / course in the University teaching departments. Any change in the number of the seats recommended by the Head of the Department shall be enforced only by the permission of the Vice-Chancellor.

A candidate can opt for admission into certificate / diploma courses simultaneously along with the undergraduate / postgraduate / M. Phil. / Ph.D. programmes.

A course in the Department shall not be started in an academic session, if the number of eligible candidates is less than 25% of total seats in the undergraduate / diploma / certificate or less than number 10 in postgraduate programmes but it may be relaxed subject to the permission from the admission committee followed by the approval of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor. In any course which is not started in the department due to unavailability of minimum number of students for admission, the fee deposited by the students shall be refunded.

Admission in the next year / final year / odd semester:

- (a) Admission in the next year / final year / odd semester shall be given as per University rules prescribed for "Minimum Pass Marks and Rules regarding Determination of Results".
- (b) For the admission in specialization course of a particular subject / programme, the admission in the next year / final year / odd semester shall be given on the basis of preference filled by the candidate. If preferences filled by students to get admission for a specialization will more than availability of seats, then merit list shall be prepared to give the admission.
